Required experience

- At least 4 years of relevant project experience preferably in a consulting or policy environment.
- Relevant Masters-level degree.
- Excellent research and analytical skills.
- Experience of taking a leading role in EU-level proposal writing
- Project management experience, incl. managing client relationships, research processes, teams and budgets.
- Fluency in written and spoken English. Additional European languages are a plus.

Our values

Being a Technopolitan is to:

- Put clients, independence and objectivity at the heart of what we do;
- Seek innovative solutions and methods, aiming for ‘thought leadership’ and always be ready to learn;
- Organise as ‘one firm’ to deliver the best teams and expertise;
- Maintain a caring internal culture that encourages debate and respects our obligations to each other, our clients and society;
- Share our learning with others;
- Recruit, develop and promote excellent people to work in teams, based on their ability to live up to our values.

Please submit your CV with a covering letter either via the vacancy announcement on our Careers page (‘work with us’) or to recruitment_be@technopolis-group.com until 20th May 2019.
